

Title: BUT NOW, I'M ADDICTED TO JESUS

It started when my friends...
Gave me a drink of wine...
It ended when my friends...
Said, "Do another line!"

CHORUS:

But now, I'm addicted to Jesus!
The wine is now
The Spirit of His Word...
The lines I do are Scripture,
My life's another picture...
With the new friend I have found...
In the Lord.

I woke up every morning...
With drinking on my mind...
Never satisfied...
Thinking fix... I need to find...

Running for my life...
My heartbeat was too fast...
Until I switched addictions...
To the High that always lasts.

I live another life now...
My fix is satisfied...
When I inhale my Savior,
My soul is gratified...

The High I feel is greater...
Than I've ever felt before...
And it never goes away...
When it's fixed in the Lord! TO CHORUS:

With the new friend I have found... in the Lord!
Not to mention... this addiction... I can afford!
